What is the purpose of this Financial Services Guide ('FSG')?

This FSG is provided by FIL Responsible Entity (Australia) Limited ABN 33 148 059 009 AFSL No. 409340 (‘FREAL’, ‘we’, ‘us’ or ‘our’) and is an important document that tells you about the financial products and services that we are authorised to provide you under our Australian Financial Services Licence ('AFSL').

This FSG contains important information about:

- who we are
- the financial services we are authorised to provide
- the financial products to which those services relate
- how we and others are paid in connection with those services
- your privacy
- how we deal with complaints and our dispute resolution procedures and
- how we can be contacted.

This FSG relates to the financial products and services we offer to retail clients and should assist you in deciding whether to use any of the products and services we offer.

When someone gives you advice recommending one of FREAL financial products or offers to sell or issue to you one of FREAL products, you should receive a Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') relating to that financial product before you acquire it. You should read the PDS carefully as it contains important information regarding the features, benefits, risks and fees applicable to an investment in that financial product to assist you in making an informed decision about the financial product and consult with your licensed financial adviser if required.

Who is FIL Responsible Entity (Australia) Limited?

FREAL is a member of the group of companies known as Fidelity International ('Fidelity') which was founded in Boston in 1946.

FREAL is the responsible entity of the various managed investment schemes we offer to retail clients and is responsible for the financial services we provide to you under our AFSL.

FREAL has the power to delegate certain duties and appoint other Fidelity entities to perform tasks and provide services.

We are responsible for the services we provide and do not act as the representative of any other licensee.

Financial services we are authorised to provide

FREAL is authorised under its AFSL to provide general financial product advice on the following classes of financial products to retail and wholesale clients:

- Interests in managed investment schemes excluding investor directed portfolio services
- Securities
- Derivatives
- Foreign exchange contracts
- Debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed to be issued by a government and
- Deposit and payment products limited to basic deposit products and deposit products other than basic deposit products.

We are not authorised under our AFSL to provide personal financial product advice to retail clients (i.e. advice that takes into account your personal financial situation, needs or objectives).

If you would like personal advice, you should contact a licensed or other authorised financial adviser. The adviser is obliged to provide you with a Statement of Advice in respect of any personal financial product advice given to you.

FREAL is authorised under its AFSL to deal in a financial product, to both retail and wholesale clients, by:

- issuing, applying for, acquiring, varying or disposing of derivatives, foreign exchange contracts, interests in managed investment schemes excluding investor directed portfolio services, and securities; and
- applying for, acquiring, varying or disposing of deposit and payment products limited to basic deposit products and deposit products other than basic deposit products, derivatives, foreign exchange contracts, debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed to be issued by a government, interests in managed investment schemes excluding investor directed portfolio services and securities.

FREAL is authorised under its AFSL to operate registered managed investment schemes, in respect of both retail and wholesale clients.

Remuneration received by FREAL and others for the services provided

If you invest in any of our financial products, FREAL will receive remuneration in relation to your investment in that financial product. This remuneration may include management costs. We may also be entitled to recover expenses incurred on behalf of the financial product or service.
Compensation and insurance arrangements

FREAL has professional indemnity insurance in place which satisfies the requirements under s912B of the Corporations Act 2001 ("the Act"). The insurance covers loss or damage that may be suffered by retail clients as a result of FREAL breaching its relevant obligations under Chapter 7 of the Act. The cover extends to all of our representatives (including our employees if any).

Complaints handling

We have established procedures to properly consider and address any complaint you may have. If you wish to make a complaint about any of our products or services, please contact us using our contact information set under the heading "How you can contact FREAL."

If you are not satisfied with our response to your complaint, you may lodge a written complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority ("AFCA") for an independent review of your matter.
